Introducing reslia

reslia is the change in real estate you have been looking for. We not only deliver superior service to our purchasers, but savings too.

Save money

When you buy a new home from a developer, the sales commission is split between the estate agency and the salesperson. When you buy with reslia, most of the sales commission comes back to you, literally saving you thousands.

Knowledge and expertise

Navigate your way around reslia's user-friendly website. Interested in knowing more about the buying process? Contact our friendly staff today and we will impress you with our knowledge and expertise.

One and the same

Purchasing your property with reslia is no different to purchasing with any other agent or developer: identical property; identical terms and conditions. The only difference? You save a lot of money.

At a glance

reslia has hundreds of beautiful new properties across Melbourne to choose from. Just click on the map above to locate the vicinity of a property and find out more.
